1. Regular staff meeting at Alcott Hall, 3 p.m., Tuesday.

25X1A9a

Mr. [REDACTED] reported that Dr. [REDACTED] would be away for about a month, beginning the middle of August. This raises the question of responsibility for the curriculum and instructor of that phase of Unclassified Training Group A at Alcott Hall that has been designated as "Intelligence and International Relations". It has been my understanding that first Mr. [REDACTED] and then Dr. [REDACTED] would be responsible for providing the content and instructor. Clarification of this responsibility at the earliest possible date will be appreciated. It has been stated several times by Colonel Baird that the course in Intelligence and International Relations in UTG/A, Alcott Hall, is the most elementary course that is offered by the CIA Intelligence School.

2. Requests for specific language training opportunities for classified personnel in the Agency, on a part-time or full-time basis, are coming in in a steady trickle. [REDACTED] are proving extremely cooperative in meeting these needs.

3. A number of requests to have unclassified personnel take on small unclassified research projects are coming in from OCD and from the Joint Committee on Research of CIA-State Department.

4. Mr. [REDACTED] appears to have done a good job in achieving good working relations between UTG/A and the operating offices with reference to integrated research projects for trainees within the basic UTG/A pattern. Every effort is now being made to eliminate the straight work projects from the UTG/A set-up; this should be achieved very soon.

5. The memorandum to all training liaison officers regarding opportunities for intensive language training outside of Washington for the academic year, 1951-52, was distributed on Wednesday. Accompanying this memorandum was the publication of the committee of the Social Science
